Any individual who believes that he or she has been subjected to harassment, discrimination, or retaliation is strongly encouraged to file a complaint. Complaints should be filed within 30 days of the most recent alleged adverse action or incident. All complaints are confidential until the investigation is complete or inactive and/or a finding is issued.

C. In the event that the complaint cannot be resolved informally, the Chief Diversity Officer or designee shall conduct an investigation in accordance with the Policy on Harassment and Discrimination and issue an investigative report with findings to the affected Department Director. At the same time, the Chief Diversity Officer will issue a written notice to the complainant and respondent that the investigation has been completed. The notice shall include a statement of the investigative findings.
